

You're invited to a Book Launch!

DREAM BOATS

Written by Dan Bar-el

Illustrated by Kirsti Anne Wakelin

Dan Bar-el is a children's author, educator and storyteller. He writes both chapter books and picture books, including Things Are Looking Grim, #1 (winner of the 2008 Silver Birch Express award), Such a Prince (a 2009 Blue Spruce Honour Book) and Pussycat Where Have You Been? (a 2012 B.C. Book Prize Honour Book). Dan travels across the country visiting schools and libraries presenting his books, giving storytelling performances and leading a variety of writing workshops.

Kirsti Anne Wakelin is an illustrator and designer who lives, works, and daydreams in Vancouver, B.C. She has illustrated several sumptuous books for children. Her work appeals to readers of all age groups.

"I don't have naps. I have adventures. I don't sleep in a bed. I ride in a Dream Boat."

Join Christianne's Lyceum and Simply Read Books for the launch of Dream Boat by Dan Bar-el, illustrated by Kirsti Anne Wakelin, a magical picture book about the night time reveries of children all over the world.

Thursday June 13, 2013

7:00 PM

at Christianne's Lyceum

3696 W. 8th Ave., Vancouver

“Whisking the reader between cultures and across boundaries of night and day, earth and air, reality and fantasy, the pictures embody the interweaving of the children's stories. Words and pictures float together and, like the Dream Boats, “dock gently.” - Jeanne Fendon in Quill and Quire

Refreshments will be served. Books will be available for purchase (no GST)
